

Alcaraz completes his dream run with thorough Miami win

SPANISH 14th seed Carlos Alcaraz capped a dream run at the Miami Open with a 7-5 6-4 win over Norwegian Rood in the final yesterday to secure the biggest win of his young career. The 18-year-old earned his first ATP Masters 1000 crown and is the first Spanish man to triumph in Miami after eight previous final appearances by his compatriots, including five by Rafa Nadal. 'I have no words to describe how I feel,' Alcaraz said after he replaced Novak Djokovic as the youngest champion in the 37-year-old tournament's history. 'But it's so special to win my Masters 1000 here in Miami.' Alcaraz struggled in the early stages of the match between the two up-and-coming players but roared back from a 4-1 deficit to take the opener on his third set point. From there, Alcaraz went up a double-break for an early 3-0 lead in the second set where Rood got one back, but ultimately had no answer of the two first-time ATP Masters 1000 finalists. With victory within his grasp, Alcaraz dropped just two points in his final three service games and served out the 1hr 52min match to love in the final game. 'I knew that Casper is playing unbelievable. He has a big forehand. I tried to play to his backhand first and attack all the time,' said Alcaraz. 'I tried not to let him dominate the match. Forehand down the line, backhand down the line was a key for me.' The victory marked Alcaraz's third ATP Tour title following triumphs at the Rio Open in February and his win at Umag last July when he became the youngest tour-level champion since Kei Nishikori won at Delray Beach in 2008.
